EDITOR AGREEMENT

made and entered into this 7th day of June, 2021, by and between

Taylor & Francis Group, LLC, a State of Delaware limited liability company, having its principal place of business at 6000 Broken Sound Parkway NW, Suite 300, Boca Raton, Florida 33487, U.S.A. (the "Publisher")

and

Shubham Tayal, Abhishek Kumar Upadhyay, Deepak Kumar, and Shiromani Balmukund Rahi

(whether one or more, the "Editor")

The Publisher and the Editor hereby agree as follows:

1. PREPARATION AND DELIVERY OF MANUSCRIPT

(a) The Editor shall facilitate the preparation by the contributors (the "Contributors") of individual chapters or other editorial contributions (the "Contributions"), which combined create the textual material called the "Manuscript", and supply to the Publisher within a reasonable time, but no later than February 1, 2022, a work consisting of approximately three hundred (300) Manuscript pages, up to one hundred (100) Illustrations (including the Alt Text (as defined below)), and the subject index (the "Index") (jointly, the "Work") with the title:

Emerging Low-Power Semiconductor Devices: Applications for Future Technology Nodes

or such other title as may be determined by the Publisher in consultation with the Editor.

The Editor shall submit the Manuscript in a suitable electronic format specified by the Publisher. The Publisher will provide guidelines to assist the Editor.

The Illustrations submitted to the Publisher must include original electronic art files suitable for placement or reproduction, in the format specified by the Publisher. Each Illustration must include a caption and an alternative text description to assist print impaired readers ("Alt Text"). As deemed necessary, the Publisher agrees to touch up, redraw, or otherwise convert line drawings into an acceptable electronic format for reproduction, the reasonable cost of which will be applied against the Editor's Royalty Account. In the event the Editor does not deliver the Index in form and content acceptable to the Publisher, within the time period established by the Publisher in consultation with the Editor, the Publisher shall apply a reasonable charge to the Editor's Royalty Account for expenses incurred by the Publisher to compile the Index.

(b) The Editor shall make every reasonable effort to ensure that the Contributors obtain original material for their Contributions. The Editor will ask the Contributors to provide the Publisher with written permissions necessary for the use of material which is not original or they do not own, and all fees and expenses for the use of such material will be borne by the Contributors. The Publisher shall make available to the Editor and Contributors Permission Verification Forms that have been approved by the Publisher for the Editor and Contributors to list copyrighted material for which permission has been obtained. If permissions are not obtained within two (2) weeks after the Work is delivered and the Editor is unable to obtain these permissions, the Publisher has the right (but not the obligation) to take such action as shall be required to obtain the necessary permissions. Any permission charges or other expenses incurred by the Publisher in securing such permissions (including reasonable legal fees), shall be charged to the Royalty Account.

(c) The Editor is responsible for ensuring that the Contributors provide a chapter abstract for each chapter (approximately 150-200 words each) at the time of delivery
